

The spirit of the holiday season was felt when the Kindergarteners needed help playing with their Christmas Eve board game they had made. Thank you 8th graders for helping us learn how to roll a die, read our game spaces and have fun with you!

