

Student Council Convention 2009

The top eight point earners for the Riverview Student Council attended the IAJHSC Convention at the Crowne Plaza in Springfield on April 10 and 11. The students attending were:

Cailee Siebel	Joe Grant	Wes Goforth
Ryan Noe	Rachel Pleasant	Anna Haeffele
Lexie Fedash	Jared Coker

Before the convention began, the students with Mrs. Kuehn, their sponsor, and Mrs. Barb Pleasant, the other adult chaperone, took advantage of the trip to Springfield and visited New Salem and Lincoln's Home.

The convention began with a formal dinner. This convention marked the 50th year of the Illinois Association of Junior High Student Councils. Three general sessions took place over the two days, which included an address by the key note speaker, Keith Hawkins. A group named MWAH (Messages Which Are Hopeful) performed, entertained, and taught with their skits and music, and councils were recognized (including ours) for outstanding achievement.

The Riverview Student Council members returned home on Saturday afternoon tired, but with a feeling of accomplishment and satisfaction of a job well done.
