Principal/Superintendent Report

A. Cheerleading tryouts went well, Mr. Blessman explained that there were 20 girls that went out and only 14 made the squad.

B. Update on Jr-Hi Homework Policy is going well per Mr. Blessman and Ms. DePoy.

C. RTI Trail is with the 6th Grade classes. Emily Dawson stated her, Mrs. Kuehn, and Miss Hoover have been working with the 6th Grade class and the classes are going well.

D. Science Position – Mr. Blessman stated that since Miss Hoover is retiring at the end of this school year, Mrs. Dawson will be highly qualified to teach Science. Mr. Blessman stated that this position has been posted internally for the required 5 days and since Mrs. Dileonardi will be returning from her lone year leave of absence, Mrs. Dawson will become the Science teacher.

E. Mr. Blessman stated that the numbers for next year kindergarten class might be larger than this year since we already have 20 kids pre-registered for Kindergarten.

F. Mr. Blessman informed the School Board that the security camera monitor is no longer working. He explained that Mark Miller is looking into a system for the school.

G. Mr. Blessman stated that the IESA has approved the softball co-op. Mr. Blessman said that he is going to work with Tom McLaughlin to determine the stipend for this extra curricular activity.
